

Copyright agreement and data processing notice: recording of guest contributions

This form is to be completed by individuals agreeing to the capture, copying and communication to students of audio and/or video recordings of their Contribution (such as a guest talk) to a programme of study at the University of Reading.

Personal Data

I agree that I wish to contribute to the Programme detailed herein and I hereby consent to the capture of my image in footage by the University. I understand that my participation is voluntary and that I may withdraw my consent to be filmed and/or recorded at any time prior to the filming or recording.

I further understand that, subsequently, the University may process (or authorise the processing of) the recording(s) for educational purposes as detailed below in accordance with the University's public task and legitimate interests. The University is committed to processing personal information in accordance with all applicable data protection laws and will ensure that the rights and interests of data subjects are weighted appropriately.

Copyright & related rights

I hereby grant permission for the University to record, reproduce and edit the recording of my Contribution for the sole purpose of making this available to those students enrolled on the Programme identified, for educational purposes, online via a secure Virtual Learning Environment; and to authorise such reproduction as may be deemed necessary by the University to facilitate use of my Contribution for the purposes hereby permitted.

To the extent that any recording made under this agreement captures a qualifying performance under the Copyright, Designs and Patents Act 1988, I hereby authorise the University to make such a recording and make the recording available as above.

I represent and agree that nothing within my Contribution will infringe the copyright of any third party. I understand that this agreement in no way transfers or assigns ownership of copyright in my Contribution to the University.
